

Guide to receive your tax credit

Background

On October 3rd, 2008, President George W. Bush signed, into law, the Emergency Stabilization Act followed by President Barack Obama signing, into law, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA) on February 17th, 2009.

The combined effect of these two laws provides up to a 30% tax credit on both the purchase and installation of qualifying products in renewable technologies such as; solar electric property, residential solar water heating, qualified small wind energy and qualified geothermal heat pump energy as well as others. Under these laws VELUX Solar Powered "Fresh Air" Skylights and other eligible VELUX Skylights with Go Solar, as well as VELUX Residential Rigid Sun Tunnels[®] with the Solar Night Light and VELUX Solar Powered Blinds qualify under "Solar Electric Property" expenditures when purchased and installed from January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2022.
